WELCOME TO THE 40TH HEAD OF THE CHARLES® REGATTA

On behalf of the Regatta's Board of Directors, seventy-person Race Operations group, Race Co-Directors Bernice Kuca and Alan Fischer, over 1,000 volunteers and the event's founding institution, the Cambridge Boat Club, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the 40th edition of the Head Of The Charles.

First, I would like to thank Cambridge Mayor Michael Sullivan, the citizens of Cambridge and Boston, local businesses and merchants alike for their willingness to welcome rowers and spectators from around the globe. The goodwill shown by our community to these rowers is deeply appreciated. The memories and experiences made here, on the Charles River, will travel home with them.

I would like to recognize the leadership and hard-working staff of the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), whose partnership with the event has made the HOCR the world's most recognized rowing festival. Our thanks go especially to Commissioner Katherine Abbott, Deputy Director Michael Testa, and Director of Operations Brian Kerins for their continued support. The DCR's behind-the-scenes work enhances the Regatta experience for everyone.

Our continued appreciation also goes to second year Associate Sponsor, Polaroid Corporation. Without their important financial support the Regatta could not operate successfully. Please be on the lookout for Polaroid's "Click Crews" along the banks of the river. These Polaroid representatives will gladly take a picture of your party using one of their latest products, the PolaroidOne 600 Instant Camera.

This year, Nautica Competition serves at the event's "official outfitter" providing over 1,000 volunteers with attractive fleece jackets and hats, seen on site this weekend. Nautica Jeans Company is also sponsoring the first ever "Row-a-Palooza" concert at the Weeks FootBridge, and the Nautica "Diver" watch will be the "official timepiece" of the HOCR. Many thanks to Chris Fuentes, Vice President of Marketing and his accomplished staff.

The HOCR welcomes Dunkin' Donuts, once again, to its ranks of Associate Sponsors and looks forward to working with the local coffee and donut giant for many years ahead. Be on the lookout for one of several sampling locations where Dunkin' Donuts' lattes will be freely poured.

Other important contributions to this year's Regatta remain strong through the generous support of the Capital Grille, Concept2, Delta Air Lines, Hotel@MIT, Infinity Broadcasting, Olympic Moving and Storage, Boston Metro, Boston's WB56, Teak Media Communications and WinTech Racing. Each of these companies provide important contributions which helps the Regatta staff and operations. We are most grateful for their participation.

Finally, I wish to personally thank Senior Race Director, Bernice Kuca for her guiding hand in this year's complex race operations, as she ably led our many expert volunteers who gave so much time to bring this edition of the Head Of The Charles to a successful conclusion. I would also like to praise Sherry Proctor, a steadfast and innovative volunteer for over 30 years who is retiring. Sherry's work as chair of the Course Committee has been truly outstanding and copied by countless regattas throughout the world. Sherry is the epitome of volunteerism and Yankee ingenuity.

To all of our competitors: good racing and a "safe and fair" path down the Charles during this weekend's events. We thank you all for your continued patronage. Pull hard and have fun!

Frederick V. Schoch
Executive Director

40 YEARS

The first Head Of the Charles was held on October 16, 1965, with nearly 100 scullers competing. The competition was established by Cambridge Boat Club members D'Arcy MacMahon, Howard McIntyre, and Jack Vincent - with the assistance of Harvard University sculling instructor Ernest Arlett. It was Arlett who proposed that a "head of the river" race, similar in tradition to races held in his native England, be held on the Charles River in Boston.

Today, over 7,000 rowers-representing more than 600 universities, schools and rowing clubs globally - compete in 24 events for both men and women. Nearly 1,500 boats, both sculls and sweeps, now row this legendary three-mile course.
