BNY MELLON

A LETTER FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OUR PRESENTING SPONSOR, BNY MELLON

KATHERINE KIRK, CHAIR OF THE BOARD,
HEAD OF THE CHARLES REGATTA

MITCHELL HARRIS, CEO, BNY MELLON
INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

DON HEBERLE, CEO, BNY MELLON
WEALTH MANAGEMENT

On behalf of the Regatta's Board of Directors, as well as everyone at our Presenting Sponsor BNY Mellon, we welcome you to Boston for this year's Head Of The Charles Regatta, the largest two-day rowing event in the world.

For the fourth consecutive year, BNY Mellon is the Presenting Sponsor of the Head Of The Charles Regatta and is delighted to support this iconic New England event in its fifty-second year.

In this Olympic year and as rowing continues to expand domestically and internationally, BNY Mellon has been instrumental in raising the profile of the sport. This year the company became a Gold Medal Sponsor of USRowing and the U.S. teams in Rio, and continued to support the Oxford-Cambridge Boat Races in the U.K.

A total of thirteen former Boat Race oarsmen and women raced at the Olympic Games, earning a total of six gold medals in the Men's Coxless Four and Men's Eight, and two silver medals in the Women's Eight. Additionally, this year the U.S. Women's Eight earned gold medals at the Olympics.

In partnership with the HOCR race directors in 2013, BNY Mellon established the

OPPOSITE

The Cambridge Boat Club turn.

BNY Mellon College Championship Trophy for collegiate teams in the Regatta's Men's and Women's Championship Eights. Last year, the winners were the Yale University men and the University of California-Berkeley women. We'll be there to support the competitors again this year as they vie for top collegiate honors.

BNY Mellon also has entered two of its own rowing teams in this year's Regatta: a Men's Eights and Women's Four crews. These rowers represent a diverse group from across BNY Mellon and will compete on October 22.

The confluence of over 800 universities, colleges, and schools added to the winding and challenging Charles River makes the Head of the Charles Regatta in Boston the ideal host for such an event. Nowhere else in the United States can the audience get as close to the racing as one can here. Over the weekend, tens of thousands of fans will walk along the banks of the river to watch these Olympic, youth, club, collegiate, and masters athletes compete.

Our thanks go to Race Director Bracknell Baker and Bob Mannino, as well as the rest of the Race Committee and the Race Operations Group for their meticulous planning to ensure the Regatta's success. We also wish to thank the nearly two thousand volunteers on Regatta weekend who donate their time and energy. Please take a moment to thank them as you see them along the riverbank.

We would also like to extend our appreciation to Cambridge Boat Club, host of the Regatta since 1965, and faithful supporter of the Regatta in countless ways.

Finally, thanks also to the Department of Conservation and Recreation and the Board of Directors of the Regatta for their continued hard work on this event. The Head Of The Charles holds a special place in Boston and Cambridge and we welcome rowers and spectators from around the globe to enjoy it with us.

Commissioner Leo Roy
Department of Conservation and Recreation

A message from the Department of Conservation and Recreation

As stewards of the Charles River Reservation and the Esplanade, the Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) is honored to be partners of this wonderful event. Since 1965, thousands of people from across the world have descended onto the banks of the Charles River each year to watch world class athletes compete in the prestigious Head Of The Charles Regatta.

In order to ensure the regatta operates both efficiently and safely, DCR staff, in coordination with our public safety partners, event staff, and volunteers work tirelessly before, during, and after the event. They are one of many factors that ensures the annual Head Of The Charles Regatta is successful. Once concluded, the Charles River Esplanade is then seamlessly returned to normal for the thousands of individuals, families, and commuters who utilize the park every single day.

I am proud of this long partnership that has been fostered over the years, and I truly appreciate being able to participate in the operations of this event. I would like to thank the Head Of The Charles Regatta organization, all the partners of the event, and the DCR staff. Importantly, I would like to personally thank Angelo Tilas, who is retiring at the end of this year from the DCR. Angelo has diligently worked for the agency, and his commitment to the Charles River Esplanade is unparalleled.

We are all very fortunate to have such a beautiful public parkland within the City of Boston like the Charles River Esplanade; please take time to observe and appreciate its natural surroundings, and have fun, stay safe, and enjoy this year's Head Of The Charles Regatta!
