On behalf of the Regatta's Board of Directors and our Presenting Sponsor BNY Mellon, we welcome you to Boston for the Head Of The Charles® Regatta (HOCR), the largest two-day rowing event in the world.

For the fifth consecutive year, BNY Mellon is the Presenting Sponsor of the Head Of The Charles® Regatta and is delighted to continue its support for this iconic New England event in its 53rd year.

Since its inaugural event, the HOCR has grown exponentially and today welcomes the world's leading crews to the banks of the Charles River for two days of competitive rowing on the same three-mile course that was first raced in 1965. The regatta now attracts over 11,000 athletes and tens of thousands of spectators from our home city of Boston and around the world. Our athletes range in age and experience, from high school to senior veterans who are still actively rowing well into their 80's, and represent over 800 clubs and universities.

In addition to sponsoring the regatta, BNY Mellon is also an active participant in the races. This year, BNY Mellon has entered two crews: a Men's Masters Four and a Mixed Eight that will compete for the Director's Challenge—an event that benefits the permanent endowment of the HOCR. These rowers represent a diverse group of employees from BNY Mellon and will compete on October 21st and 22nd. Additionally, we are proud to award the BNY Mellon College Championship Trophy to the winning collegiate teams in the Men's and Women's Championship Eights. Last year, the winners were the University of Washington men and the Yale University women. We'll be there on the river banks to support all of these competitors this year as they vie for top honors.

We would like to express our deep gratitude to Race Directors, Bracknell Baker and Nick Lloyd, as well as the rest of the Race Committee and the Race Operations Group for their tireless efforts and planning to ensure the Regatta's success. Thank you also to the Department of Conservation and Recreation and the Board of Directors of the Regatta for their continued hard work on this event.

We also wish to acknowledge the nearly 2,000 volunteers on Regatta weekend who donate their time and energy. Importantly, we would like to extend our appreciation to the membership of the Cambridge Boat Club, the host club of the Regatta since 1965, for their faithful support of the Regatta.

In closing, HOCR holds a special place in Boston and Cambridge, with the three original goals of the Regatta—being fun to work on, fun to row in and fun for the people whose neighborhood it goes through—remaining ever present in the ethos of the event. We welcome rowers and spectators from around the globe to enjoy it with us.

Good luck to all of our rowers.

from our hosts/

Commissioner Leo Roy
Department of Conservation and Recreation

A message from the Department of Conservation and Recreation

The Department of Conservation and Recreation supports all forms of outdoor recreation, and is particularly proud to once again serve as host to the Head Of The Charles Regatta (HOCR), one of the nation's premier displays of athletic prowess. Massachusetts is fortunate to have a wealth of rowing athletes and enthusiasts at its many colleges and boathouses who partner with the DCR to ensure the Charles River continues to serve them, and their sport, throughout the season.

An event like Head Of The Charles requires commitments and close communication by many parties, including DCR staff, public safety agencies, event staff and volunteers. Their collaboration makes it possible to host thousands of spectators along the river's edge and ultimately return the parklands to their original condition so regular users, including families and commuters, may continue to utilize its walkways, greenspaces and recreation areas.

The Head Of The Charles would not be possible without a network of partners who have been involved for many years, and I would especially like to thank the Head Of The Charles Regatta organization, all event partners, and DCR personnel who will be assisting with operations throughout the day. We count on ongoing friend support from HOCR to restore and improve the banks of the Charles, the venue for this extraordinary event.

Massachusetts is blessed with the natural resources needed to host such spectacular events, and it is our shared responsibility to protect them. Please help us protect these important waterfront parklands by cleaning up after your stay and encouraging others to do so, too. Together, we can ensure Boston's natural settings remain beautiful for generations to come. Enjoy the Regatta!
